STATE OF WISCONSIN.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

In accordance with the appropriate custom of setting apart a day for the giving of thanks for the prosperity of the year, and in conformity with the proclamation of the President of the United States, I, Jeremiah M. Bush, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby designate Thursday, the 27th day of November, instant, as a day of thanksgiving for the people of the State of Wisconsin, and I command their grateful and reverent observance thereof, in public and in private, in ways befitting a people thankful for the many blessings of a kind Providence. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the city of Madison, this 24th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

By the Governor,
J. M. RUSK.
ERNEST G. HAMIL, Secretary of State.

The man who didn't bet on this election may be congratulated.

Forgiveness is one of the things that Mr. Conkling does not carry about with him.

The sly old fox at Gramercy park has not whispered a word of congratulations for Mr. Cleveland. Samuel is great on a still heat.

There comes a report from Minnesota that a cave has been found filled with copper tools, quaint implements of war and wide mills, similar to those used in early Egypt.

The story that betting on New York has passed into a draw game, by mutual consent, is entirely false. If the Democrats lose, they will pay, and if the Republicans are defeated, they will not try the baby out.

Never before in the history of this country was a presidential candidate beaten in his own election district, in his own ward, in his own city, and in his own county. It was reserved for Grover Cleveland to be thus humiliatingly repudiated by his own neighbors.

Gold is coming to this country at a very rapid rate. It will reach twenty millions before the close of the year, and this since the first of October. This shows that the United States has goods that Europe can buy, and which are cheaper and better here than in that country.

It is reported from Washington that an effort will be made in New York to elect President Arthur to the Senate to succeed Mr. Laplant. The president is not a candidate, but it is intimated that he would likely accept if the nominating n was tendered him without solicitation on his part.

The men of sublime courage, of prodigious ability, of prodigious self-restraint, of prodigious courtesy, and who, in integrity is a millionaire—the man from Maine—is one of the most patient and far-minded men in all the nation. He is a grand man under all circumstances.

Gossip has it that Truman Adams Merriman, congressman elect of New York, is a genuine dud, or more properly in a milder term, a fatty "not beyond compare." It is alleged that when the Goddess of Liberty on the capitol at Washington was informed of Colonel Merriman's election a flush mounted her forehead and she exclaimed: "When the members elect me and the steps I shall bow to them alone."

An enthusiastic republican in Binghamton, New York, who doesn't understand that state writes, his home paper as follows:

Dear Sir: I notice on my last two papers you put no bird on first page. Now in the future I want you to put a bird on my paper or erase my name from your subscription list. Yours truly,

The spirit, if not the judgment, of that man is to be admired. Never abandon hope so long as there is a fighting chance.

"I do not wish any political supporters of mine in New York to take the slightest advantage of mere technical defects in my returns where the honest intention of the voter is expressed. I would far rather lose than gain by the exclusion of returns on mere technical grounds. The presidency is not desirable if there be the remotest taint on the title. A promotion of that kind no more leads to honor than the possession of forged paper leads to wealth."—James C. Blaine.

The argument that cholera would not find a lodgment where cleanliness prevailed, seems to have failed so far as Paris is concerned. That city has a population of nearly two and a half million. All that modern science, combined with shrewd practical sense, could do to perfect the drainage and sanitation of the city has been done, and yet some portions of the city where the streets are clean, and sewerage perfectly good, the people are quarreling before an enemy that laughs at all sanitary precautions.

NO PROHIBITION.

Benjamin Disraeli—the late Lord Beauchamp—once said, and we believe it was in Lothair, that no human foresight can guard against the unconscious machinations of stupidity. This will very aptly apply to Dr. Burchard's infamous alteration, but it will more particularly meet the case of the prohibitionists.

Their stupidity has done one thing for them over which they will do some sorrowing—it has placed prohibition out of their reach.

In no state in the Union has a prohibition member of the legislature been elected. They have been routed, horse, foot and dragon; but after the prohibitionists overcame the possible defeat of the national republican ticket, we understand they propose to plow with the republican members of the coming Wisconsin legislature to vote for a joint resolution to submit a prohibitory amendment to the people. It requires a good deal of chutzpah to take this course, but after they play assistant democrats so gracefully and willingly in the late campaign, they are prepared to do anything and no one should be surprised at it.

It is pretty evident, judging from the present temper of the people, that the prohibitionists will knock in vain at the doors of the legislatures for prohibition. It would come, very certainly, with much ill-grace to ask republicans to support

Statistics show that the gold mined in the United States for the year ending October 1, was $29,000,000, and the silver $8,000,000. During that time the mints coined $27,582,834 in gold and $29,045,097 in silver, with $23,875,336 in gold bars and $7,638,724 in silver bars. Our metallic treasure is estimated at $557,000 in gold and $257,000 in silver, with $58,000,000 in gold and silver bullion in the mints besides! During last year about $17,000,000 in silver dollars was paid out making about $40,000 altogether of that coin in circulation.

It takes about two months to receive news from Alaska, and the fact that a civil government has at last been provided for that province, has just been received at Washington, although the establishment of the government took place on the 15th of September. Through Mr. Seward's influence the United States bought Alaska a number of years ago for seven million dollars. Just what benefit that country has been to the United States cannot be told. It got a poor province at a big price, and if Russia had it back again the United States would be better off and Russia the poorer.

The territories and states west of the Mississippi are marvelous for their capacity to breed and feed cattle. The report of the bureau of animal industry will show that there are 23,000,000 head of cattle in that portion of our domain. The average increase since 1880 has been thirty per cent., the greatest increase being in Texas, where it reaches seventy per cent., while Kansas follows with an increase of fifty-seven per cent. The average citizen will wonder why he is still compelled to pay so high a price for tough beef-steak. The conundrum is too abstruse to be guessed.

A noted aeronaut makes the statement that no balloon has ever gone over a second sunset. The moment the sun goes down the gas cools and you get through the night better than the day. But the next day, in the presence of the sun, the gas expands and you mount to great elevations, but every mount the balloon makes wrinkles its pressure and it is only a question of hours, if not minutes, how long you can keep up. If an aeronaut could have forty-eight hours of night he could travel a great distance. The highest rate of speed he had over attained, even with a strong wind blowing, was eighty miles an hour.

The heroic Molly Pitcher is certainly one of the first women of the land. On the Monmouth battle-ground monument, which was unveiled on Thursday, is to be seen Molly, standing as a heroic figure in one of the bas-reliefs. Molly is the central figure of the third panel. She is shown as a woman of unusual muscular power. Dressed in dust and battle-scarce at her feet is her dead husband whose place as gunner. Molly gloriously filled. With backward sweep of body and forward dash of wind-tossed gown, her face to the foe, she rams the charge into the cannon's mouth. A wounded soldier uses his right hand, instead of the left, in thumbing the vent. In the background rides General Knox, directing the artillery fire. The other panels picture Ramay defending his guns and Washington, with his horse at a gallop, rallying the troops.

The Telegraph advises us that the different democratic clubs in the large cities of the south are joining in the celebration of the great victory which has not yet been achieved. specifies the Jefferson club, the "Madison club" and the "Jackson club" as some of the organizations which are conspicuous in these premature festivities. Nothing shows more clearly how far behind the age our southern friends are. In the constitution, by-laws or platforms of these clubs are called "Jefferson," "Madison" and "Jackson," there cannot be found a single section of importance which was adopted or promulgated by Jefferson, Madison or Jackson. The old time ante-bellum democracy, which was based on slavery, state rights and free trade had those eminent statesmen for its exponents; but their names now recall only the reminiscence of a defunct civilization. Even the national platform of the democratic party fails to invoke the memory of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson and reiterates that "new issues" have been born out of the season of travail which the nation has undergone. The essential principles of the creed of Jefferson, Madison and Jackson have disappeared from the minds of intelligent people and time will not go backward in its flight to resurrect them from that oblivion to which history and patriotism have so properly and profitably consigned them.

NO PROHIBITION.

Benjamin Disraeli—the late Lord Beauchamp—once said, and we believe it was in Lothair, that no human foresight can guard against the unconscious machinations of stupidity. This will very aptly apply to Dr. Burchard's infamous alteration, but it will more particularly meet the case of the prohibitionists.

Their stupidity has done one thing for them over which they will do some sorrowing—it has placed prohibition out of their reach.

In no state in the Union has a prohibition member of the legislature been elected. They have been routed, horse, foot and dragon; but after the prohibitionists overcame the possible defeat of the national republican ticket, we understand they propose to plow with the republican members of the coming Wisconsin legislature to vote for a joint resolution to submit a prohibitory amendment to the people. It requires a good deal of chutzpah to take this course, but after they play assistant democrats so gracefully and willingly in the late campaign, they are prepared to do anything and no one should be surprised at it.

It is pretty evident, judging from the present temper of the people, that the prohibitionists will knock in vain at the doors of the legislatures for prohibition. It would come, very certainly, with much ill-grace to ask republicans to support their measure, and as for asking their late companions in arms, the democrats, to vote for prohibition it would be too ridiculous a joke for anything. So far as our friends, the St. John prohibitionists, era out in the cold, and will likely remain there for some time.

They could have built much wiser than they did—much better for temperature, for right for justice, for morals, and for the house, but they would not. A spirit of meice and of hate moved them to assist in assassinating the republican-party, and now they want the republican party to help them. It is safe to say that they will get no sympathy from the republicans of Wisconsin, and the democrats, for whom they worked in the late canvass, will laugh at their predilection.

It is possible that the coming legislature will do something for the cause of temperance. An effort will be made to increase the ration license of the state to something like $800 or $900. A good many democrats will support such a proposition, but whether its friends will prove strong enough to carry it through both houses, is a question, regarding which, it would not be safe to conjecture.

SOME EXPLANATIONS.

HOW GAINS AND LOSSES IN NEW YORK ARE FIGURED.

Republicans Claim a Gain for Blaine of 421, and Democrats Declare They Will Be Set Off by Cleveland's Gains Political Notes.

NEW YORK Nov. 15.—The canvass of the returns from the county was continued Tuesday and the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th through. There was no difficulty in getting the figures, although some difference was found on both sides from the city press reports of Nov. 5.

The Associated Press furnishes the following figures: The official canvass of the Ninth assembly district, this county, with the Thirty-first election district missing, gives Cleveland, 4,440 votes; Cleveland, 5,117; Butler, 5,122; St. John, 124. The vote published Nov. 5 was: Blaine, 4,337; Cleveland, 5,303; Butler, 119; St. John, 124.

The complete canvass of the First election district gives Blaine, 4,175; Cleveland, 5,104; Butler, 124; St. John, 11; again in favor of Cleveland.

The Eleventh district complete gives Blaine, 3,597; Cleveland, 3,342; Butler, 57; St. John, 56; no change.

The Twelfth district complete gives Blaine, 3,018; Cleveland, 5,172; Butler, 71; St. John, 56; a change of 1 in favor of Cleveland.

The Thirtieth District.—The Thirtieth, Sixteenth, and Twenty-eighth election districts have been referred to the committees on canvassing. The Fourteenth district complete gives Blaine, 5,170; Cleveland, 4,897; Butler, 74; St. John, 124.

The Fifteenth district complete gives Blaine, 4,157; Cleveland, 5,104; Butler, 124; St. John, 11; again in favor of Cleveland.

With reference to the "gains" that have caused so much mystification in the public mind the Associated Press sounds out the following:

The total vote of New York county, with which comparison is made by the Associated Press are now being made as the canvass progresses, as furnished by the City Press Bureau on Nov. 5. It gave the following figures:

Cleveland..... 5,122 Butler..... 3,943 Blaine..... 4,337 Rockwood..... 2,229

There are twenty-four assembly districts in New York county. Their vote as first reported by the City Press is appended. By keeping it in hand the returns, as they are canvassed and reported, may be compared and any discrepancy may be noted. Assembly districts as reported Nov. 5.

District	Blaine	Cleveland
First	4,743	4,743
Second	5,021	5,021
Third	5,119	5,119
Fourth	5,323	5,323
Fifth	5,365	5,365
Sixth	5,222	5,222
Seventh	5,180	5,180
Tenth	4,177	4,177
Eleventh	3,507	3,543
Twelfth	3,018	3,171
Fourteenth	4,157	4,157
Fifteenth	3,255	3,255
Sixteenth	4,159	4,157
Twenty-first	5,748	5,748
Twenty-second	5,221	5,842
Twenty-third	5,151	5,053
Total.....	80,847	123,023

The following have already been reported:

District—Blaine—Cleveland.

Second..... 2,130 5,229 Third..... 2,624 5,111 Fourth..... 3,501 5,323 Fifth..... 4,182 5,365 Sixth..... 2,636 5,180 Eighth..... 4,759 4,144

All the counties in this state have sent in their official reports excepting New York, Erie, and Monroe. If there is no change in the pluralities of these three counties from what were reported by their county clerks just before the canvass of their returns began, Cleveland's plurality is 27,223.

The Tribune's election day report says: "Done Up"—"Almost the last chance of Blaine's Election New Passed." In its table of pluralities it figures Cleveland's plurality as 57,527.

The Inter Ocean has the following special from New York:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE, NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The six districts out of twenty-four in the city have been canvassed and reported upon. The canvass to-day gave both Blaine and Cleveland increases over the previous returns, but the balance was in favor of Blaine whose gain in the Ninth district was 71 votes, which, added to his previous gains, shows a total of 421. This is the Democratic watchword claimed for Cleveland.

A reporter for The Mail and Express sought to lean from Inspector Byrnes the object of the presence of himself and other detectives at the canvass. "We are not here for fun, you may depend," he said. Thus was the satisfaction to give inquiry.

It is noted out during the day that the detective force of the Ninth district, which is under the command of District Attorney Oliver, Private Detectives are also on duty about the rooms. They are said to be there to prevent the consummation of any unholy alliance between the Tammany and Republican supervisors in the district.

Shortly after 1 o'clock an elderly gentleman in old-fashioned clothes was escorted into the room. He at once became interested in the proceedings and critically surveyed his surroundings. He was Dr. Pierce, who has haunted Democratic headquarters ever since the campaign opened, giving the National committee "bullets" as to how the campaign ought to be conducted. His suggestions were always received in good faith because he was a brother-in-law of ex-Governor Hendricks, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate.

A reporter for The Mail and Express asked him if he was a Democrat. "Yes," he said, "but I am not a member of the party." Dr. Pierce reported, Blaine, 4,984; Cleveland, 5,111; St. John, 124; Butler, 119.

If the figures are not changed the First district will show a gain of 9 for Blaine over the figures of Nov. 5, and a loss for Cleveland of 49. The Seventh district will show a gain for Blaine of 215 and a gain for Cleveland of 34. It is claimed by the Democrats that the first count in these two districts was incorrect, and that the final count will show little or no gain on either side.

The following was telegraphed from Chicago to The Chicago Times Friday night: "An enormous impression prevails throughout the country to the effect that the electoral returns are developing largely in favor of the First Creek District." Said spectacle Parker's Hair Palace, saloon and perfume parlor, in the Second election district of the city, has been greatly increased in the number of its assembly districts. For instance, the canvass of the Second election district showed a large increase in the number of its assembly districts. For instance, the canvass of the Second election district showed a large increase in the number of its assembly districts. Now is the time to treat catarrh of long standing. Ely's Cream Balm reaches obstinate cases, where other remedies fail. It lies the relief you seek. Price 50 cents.

Applies into the nostrils with the finger. A gentleman from Orwell, Pa., called my attention to Ely's Cream Balm as a remedy for Catarrh, Hay Fever, &c. He was so eruct in asserting it to be a positive cure (himself having been cured by it) that I purchased a stock. The Balm has already effected cures. P. F. Hyatt, M. D., Bordentown, N. J.

After having used a large number of preparations for Catarrh, I have become satisfied that of them all Ely's Cream Balm gives me the most relief. I can recommend it to any one who may have Catarrh, Cold in the head or Hay Fever. S. B. Lewis, Principal Greed School, Clifton, Wis.

The streets of Janesville have been well filled with people and teams from the country to-day, and tad busy scene of the business center has been the liveliest of any day since the close of harvest. We hope it will continue to-day.

If many of our citizens would only mistake this season of pleasant weather for spring time, and clear up the leaves and other debris in their yards and along the sidewalks, they would prevent a runaway, bat as the animal struck the bridge Officer Dyer caught the lines and put a stop to any further speculation.

The oyster supper and apron sale, at the Congregational church, last evening, aged nine months. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends in their sad bereavement. The funeral will take place at the home of the parents, 52 West Milwaukee street, on Monday next, at eleven o'clock a.m.

The new engine is much less complicated and more powerful than the old, and is called a "crane neck," allowing the engine to be turned around within its own length. A large new lithograph of the engine has been received, and can be seen in the engine house after Monday next. No. 2's company are feeling very proud over the prospects of having a new engine of the Button build, as they have always styled the "team" on the "Button" line.
